LOCAL BRIEFS.

Primes and Dried Currants at WARINER & CO.

Call and see Allen McDonald, with M. P. McDonald, when you want good goods at low prices.

Rain and sleet on Sunday made the streets very muddy.

The late cold snap has brought out the blue nose brigade in full force.

It is well. The red noses have had the field about long enough.

The Supreme Court has decided that counties, and not the State, are responsible for the board bills of prisoners charged with felony.

Our old friend, John Brown, is still in the market with Lime. He has enough on hand to supply present demands.

The Paris Mercury is the best printed country paper in Missouri, and there is not a livelier or more business country town in Missouri than Paris.

Big stock of Queensware and Glassware—just received at WARINER & CO.

When a man one of these days tells you that he is a yard wide and all wool with horns as long as a Texas steer, you may rest assured that he has found the exact location of the jug in the hay stack.

The evidences of an over supply of Beavers were plainly visible on our streets Saturday evening, and the end-bow was lighted up that night.

The facts, we need another temperance boom in this town.

You always find Lemons and Oranges at WARINER & CO.

We are now getting some very fine sheep in Ray county, and all the wool is as good as gold.

As far as the school board is concerned, we are not of actual service to you, let him be put out of the way.

If boys about town would use the same amount of exertion cutting stove wood that they are trying to keep a pair of skates going, their mothers would not have as much trouble keeping a supply on hand.

The office of Collector Davis is crowded from early dawn until late at night these days, with people anxious to pay their taxes. The amount collected must be large. The people seem to be in haste to get a bad job off their backs.

Santa Claus will visit the families of the poor as well as the rich to-night, (Wednesday), but he is discriminating in favor of the rich and leaves them the most costly of his presents.

We have fallen out with the man on account of his partiality.

Mules.

We take pleasure in calling attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Doherty & Grant in this issue. They have permanently established themselves here for the purpose of buying mules, and being liberal dealers, our farmers would do well when they have stock to sell to give them a call.

Personal.

Esquire J. H. Grove, from Harlin, paid our office a visit last week.

Miss Gussie Craven, of Camden, is in the city, visiting Miss Ellen McCreary.

Mr. C. T. Gamble, Jr., went to St. Louis on business, last Sunday night.

Mr. W. R. Joiner, from near Vibbard, gave us a pleasant call on Monday.

Mr. John Holloway, from near Morton, gave us a substantial call on Thursday.

Mr. J. P. Grimes, one of the strong friends of the Democrat, from Millville, was in Friday.

Mr. O. G. Williams, from Orrick, called on Saturday, and made us glad with a big round dollar.

Mr. J. C. Vaughan, dropped in Monday to call for another year. He likes the Democrat much better since it has been enlarged.

Miss Mattie Garner, who has been attending school at Columbia, returned home Saturday night, late, to spend the holidays.

Mr. J. C. Cox, from near Lawson, was in the city to pay for his father's paper. He says the Democrat is much liked in his section.

Mr. Winfield Miller, a wide awake merchant from Knoxville, honored our sanctum with a call on Monday last, and placed us under obligations for news.

Mr. S. H. Graham, from near Knoxville, was in town Tuesday. He has built himself a new house this fall, and is now prepared to live in comfort at home.

Mr. Chas. A. Watson, of Columbia, was in the city on Sunday last. His business was not fully known, but it is presumed he knew what he was here for.

Misses Hollie and Bettie Mountjoy and Lucy Atkinson, three of Lexington's most beautiful and accomplished young ladies, are spending the Christmas holidays with friends in the city.

Mr. Wm. A. White and her daughter called last week to see how papers were printed on our new Hot Power Press. It is done so easy that it looks as if most any person could print them.

Misses Nettie and Dora Keith, two charming and vivacious young ladies who have been attending school at this place, have gone to Norborne to spend the holidays. They were accompanied by Miss Kate Jeter.

Mothers, C. B. Hagles, Samuel Sevier and Ralph Esteb, who have been attending the Kemper school, at Booneville, returned home on Tuesday night, and will spend the holidays with their Richmond friends.

Capt. Thos. McGinnis got back from Kentucky Tuesday night, after a very pleasant trip. He says they are manufacturing large quantities of liquid refreshments in the section he visited. He has our thanks for favors to this office.

Mr. H. W. Broughton, a prominent citizen from near Morton, called on Tuesday to square up. He likes the Democrat and his way of talking, and will read it another year. Mr. Broughton talks sound on the question of settling our county bonds.

Mr. Day, the agent for Maury's Geography, dropped in last week to ask for a puff for his books. The advertising columns of this paper are open to him, but we are not puffing books like that without we claim them as very worthy and we don't think much of Maury's Geography.

Alfred Mann, Commissioner of Marion county, says: I regard them superior to any, and would like to see them adopted as text books in our public schools.

Thomas N. Deacy, Commissioner of Lincoln county, says: I consider them the best of any.

D. L. Caldwell, Commissioner of Jackson county, says: Having carefully examined the whole series of Appleton's Readers, I hesitate not to give my unqualified approval of them.

MAN KILLED.

Run into Eternity Without a Moments Notice.

On Saturday last a fatal accident occurred at the farm of Mr. Buck Petty, 2 miles north of Knoxville, in this county, which resulted in the almost instant death of Wm. D. Thompson, a brother-in-law to Mr. Petty. The two men were unloading wood from a wagon to which was hitched a pair of mules.

Mr. Thompson was at the front of the wagon standing in front of the horse while Mr. Petty was standing behind the wagon. By an accident the end of a stick of wood was dropped on the double-tree, which frightened the mules, causing them to start. The lines being tied on the opposite side from Thompson, he made a grab at them to stop the team, but missing his hold fell under the wagon, when one of the rear wheels passed over his head, killing him instantly.

The wheel passed over the base of the skull. Mr. Thompson was a young married man about 30 or 35 years old, and leaves no other family than his wife, who we learn is a fine and delicate woman, and may soon be left a widow with a young child.

It is one of those unforeseen accidents that every now and then occur in which no person can be blamed.

Come out Saturday and vote. Every man who falls to vote for the 60 cent proposition will be considered by the bond holders as on their side and willing to pay the debt in full. You fail to compromise this debt now and your county court will have to pay the debt, and you will have to pay the tax or resist the enforcement of the levy. Hadn't you better compromise and save all this trouble.

A Fine Sheep.

Our enterprising townsman, Mr. J. W. Harrison, has just received a very fine young Cotswold Buck, all the way from Springfield, Illinois. Mr. Harrison already has a very fine lot of Cotswold Ewes and he wishes to still further improve his stock. The sheep he just received is a thoroughbred animal. Mr. Harrison deserves the thanks of lovers of fine stock for his enterprise in this direction.

Judge Edwards, of Jefferson City, has decided that a teacher has no right to compel a scholar from school, but that the school board alone is vested with such powers. It makes very little difference how a nursery boy or girl is dismissed, just so they are not sent out to roam and exert a bad influence over other children. If parents properly control their children at home they will be easily managed at school. This is the secret of the whole matter. Parents who will not or cannot control their children should have a guardian appointed without delay.

Recalled the election comes next Saturday. If we accept the 60 cent proposition, we may get our bondholders settled with us, and we can go to work with a renewed energy to meet our obligations. If we neglect to do so, we will be hampered by the collector, and the United States Marshal, until something is done.

Don't forget that at L. MEGEDE'S is the place to buy your Christmas presents. He has just received a new assortment of fine jewelry, watches, clocks, silverware, porcelain, etc., which he will sell at the lowest prices. 7-50-4.

Table "BLACK-DRAGHT" and you will never be bilious.

For sale by Garner & Jacob's.

Fresh Groceries.

Messrs. Wariner & Co. would inform their friends that they are just in receipt of a very large stock of Fresh Groceries, Candles and Christmas goods, which they will sell at very low prices. They can furnish you just what you want for the holidays, and don't you forget it.

Balls for Sale.

We have five young short horn balls for sale at our farm, 6 miles north of Richmond. H. P. SETTLE & SON. 7-51-4.

The great $12.50 Black Cloth suits can now be found at FOWLER & EWING'S.

A freight train off the track Monday night, up near Plattburg, caused the down passenger train to be about 7 hours behind time.

Dry Boneless Cod Fish at WARINER & CO.

The Celebrated Lexington Flour for sale at Wariner & Co's.

The dogs killed several very fine sheep for Dr. Garner, at his farm, north of town, one night this week. If he can find out who the dogs did it, he can make the owners of the dogs pay the value of the sheep.

At WARINER & CO., can be found the best Cider Vinegar in the city.

The finest Syrups at WARINER & CO.

Perry Wariner will sell you cheap Groceries at WARINER & CO. 7-51-4.

For a full suit of the Black Cloth at $12.50, go to FOWLER & EWING'S.

Macou Register. Our old friend, T. D. Bogie, formerly of the Buntville Herald, now editing the Richmond Democrat, has enlarged to a nine column paper, and deserves the praise which it is apparently meeting with in Ray county.

Lincoln Bulletin. The Richmond Democrat came to us last week as big as all our dogs. Glad to see you prosper, Bro. Bogie.

Platte City Agitation. The Richmond Democrat has been enlarged and comes to us bright, new, cheerful and evidently prosperous.

Liberty. The Richmond Democrat came to us last week enlarged, and we hope will be enlarged and is now presented on a Hot Power Press, and presents a fine appearance. We are glad to see such evidences of prosperity in our neighbor.
